

Dear Ayşe, dear İbrahim,

On behalf of the European Greens, we would like to express our warmest congratulations to both of you on your election as co-chair of Yesil Sol.

COVID-19 is the biggest health crisis of the century which also led to a period of social and economic hardships, without mentioning the climate crisis which has never stopped threatening us all. More than ever the Greens have to be more vocal and influence as much as possible the society in line with our values of sustainability, democracy and inclusion. We appreciate your hard work in promoting these values in Turkey despite the political situation you must face.

We would like to express once again our support to your party in the different difficult situations you are facing, especially in topic such as Gender Equality regarding the recent Turkish withdrawal from the Istanbul convention. We will never stop calling Turkey to rejoin the Istanbul convention.

We are also glad from the latest positive evolution of Cihan Erdal case. We hope all the charges will be dropped soon and he would be able to come back home as well.

We are looking forward to continuing our good cooperation with you for a greener, a fairer and a more democratic Turkey.

We are looking forward to meet you as well later this year.

With our best regards,
